

Dance in the Rain

Ron Greene (mid October & December 2017)

4/4

Your wife ran off with another woman D G
For your life to come, not a good omen. A D
What you gonna do? Who'll care for you? D G
It's time to look for someone new. A D D

chorus: Feeling down? Dance in the rain. D D G G
It's guaranteed to ease your pain. A D
Pet a cat – you can't beat that. D D G G
Or hug a tree. I'm sure you'll see A D
That these are things that'll set you free. G AD D

Look in the fridge, you've got no beer. D G
You're starting to sweat, beginning to fear. A D
What can you do when you've got no brew? D G
You've landed yourself in a great big stew. A D D

[chorus]

Your favorite team's gone oh and six, D G
And your second wife is turning tricks. A D
What you gonna do? Will you stop at two? D G
When it comes to women, you've got no clue. A D D

[chorus]

Driving to town, your old truck died. D G
You threw up your hands and cried and cried. A D
What you gonna do? It had been so true. D G
Is it time to check out of the human zoo? A D D

[chorus]

alt chorus: Feeling down? Listen to the rain. D D G G
It's guaranteed to ease your pain. A D
Sing a song – it won't take long. D D G G
Or have some tea and soon you'll be A D
Casting off your misery. G AD D
