

Forever Rich

Bob Dylan and Ron Greene

Summer 2018

4/4 p2 capo -2

May your life be blessed with luxury
May your wishes all come true
May you always do to others
So that wealth accrues to you
May you build a ladder to the top
And climb without a hitch
May you stay forever rich
Forever rich, forever rich
May you stay forever rich

May you make the most of greed
May you know when to acquire
May you gather illicit knowledge
And succeed when you conspire
May you always be the winner
With schemes that have no glitch
May you stay forever rich
Forever rich, forever rich
May you stay forever rich

May your mind be ever devious
May your actions be ever sly
May you always gain in power
So you crush the other guy
May you lack moral convictions
May you know what friends to ditch
May you stay forever rich
Forever rich, forever rich
May you stay forever rich
