

It's Not Gonna Happen

Bob Dylan and Ron Greene Jan 2018

4/4 capo 2 p1

There ain't no use to sit and wonder how, folks;
It's a done-deed we can't disavow.
There ain't no use to sit and wonder how, folks;
We have to live with it for now.
When the Trumpet tweets at the break of dawn,
With all the limits of his lexicon,
We might sincerely wish him to be gone.
But it's not gonna happen this year.

Ain't no use in pondering foreign policy;
It's in line for big cuts.
Ain't no use in pondering foreign policy;
Our stable genius has gone nuts.
Diplomacy is something we no longer need
Don't think he'll do it on his own and succeed
As for our allies, they are all agreed
It's not gonna happen this year.

There ain't no use in worrying about environment;
Our EPA director is a snake.
There ain't no use in worrying about environment;
The news of damage is all fake.
To the Trumpet, science is the butt of jokes
For climate change is just a Chinese hoax
No matter the effort that we all try to coax
It's not gonna happen this year.

There ain't no use in relying on our Justice;
The Alabama weasel is a fool.
There ain't no use in relying on our Justice;
The Trumpet's there to overrule.
Russian collusion notwithstanding
Our wimpy Congress will not be commanding
It's unlikely there'll even be a reprimanding
It's not gonna happen this year.

There ain't no use in whinin' over spilt milk;
Change won't happen without work.
There ain't no use in whinin' over spilt milk;
We have to neutralize the jerk.
We need a new Congress to control the direction
Our looming hope is the mid-term election
The people must come out to express their rejection
Perhaps it will happen this year.
