chorus:	To give myself a burst of cheer,	F	F	C C
	Music at Maples was truly dear.	G	G	C C
	Happy sounds i was sure to hear,	F	F	C C
	And best of all, we played all year.	G	G	C C
	Saturday brought the Micaville jam; it	C	C	F F
	Began with a sweet – thank you ma'am. Then	G	G	C C
	Stepping next door, truth be told,	A _m	A _m	F F
	Hours of fun made my weekend whole.	G	G	C C
	But Saturdays weren't the only treat	F	F	G G
	Additional music, every other week	G	G	C C
	Second Thursdays, concert nights,	C	C	F F
	Local musicians - sheer delight	G	G	C C C
	[chorus]
	Some fourth Thursdays, sure enough,	C	C	F F
	Brought an open mic to strut our stuff.	G	G	C C
	A featured musician began the night	A _m	A _m	F F
	With a brief half-hour performance flight.	G	G	C C
	But many people's favored event	F	F	G G
	Was an organized night with themed content.	G	G	C C
	Each musician a gift would bring –	C	C	F F
	Related songs that they would sing.	G	G	C C C
	[chorus]
	So week-by-week together we'd come	C	C	F F
	To play and sing, or maybe hum.	G	G	C C
	Comradery was what we sought –	A _m	A _m	F F
	A special joy that can't be bought.	G	G	C C
		A _m	A _m
	But who could know, with the hurricane,	D _m	D _m
	Came the flood, wind and rain.	A _m	A _m
	Maples is gone ...,	E _m	E _m
	But the music goes on.	E _m	A _m	A _m
2nd chorus:	To give myself a burst of cheer,	F	F	C C
	Toe River Music is truly dear.	G	G	C C
	Happy sounds i'm sure to hear,	F	F	C C
	And best of all we play all year.	G	G	C C
