

4/4 capo 2

capo -2

Those not woke may be asleep,
 Dreaming of a distant past.
 When red and black and brown and yellow
 Knew their place – “There’s a good fellow.”

A D C F
 A E C G
 D A F C
 E E A G G C

chorus: We see that for you anti-woke Giving women voice is not your choice;
 And no more LGBT rights,
 Or too much voting by those not white.
 Giving kids a sanitized view
 Of science and history, designed by you.
 Gathering books that you want banned –
 Curtailing freedom in our land.

D A F C
 E A G C
 D A F C
 E A A G C C
 A E C G
 E A G C
 A D C F
 A GA C GC

Ron Sanctimonius, what a jerk –
 He panders to the Trumpet’s mob.
 With homophobes and racist folk,
 He’s breaking wind ... against the woke.

A D C F
 A E C G
 D A F C
 E E A G G C

[chorus]

Don’t forget the conspiracy crowd,
 Denying facts they don’t like.
 Things that threaten their screwy views
 Are quickly declared ... to be fake news.

A D C F
 A E C G
 D A F C
 E E A G G C

[chorus]

We have no right to impose our will
 On folks with different views.
 So let us treasure, like a precious jewel,
 Those who embrace ... the golden rule.

A D C F
 A E C G
 D A F C
 E E A G G C
 D A E A<sub>pinch</sub> F C G C<sub>pinch</sub>